A South Carolina man facing double murder charges for the death of a man and his own brother was granted a $220,000 bond Friday.

Charvez Lawson, 27, was arrested about three weeks after the Dec. 7 shooting at the Private I on Thomas Lane.

At Lawson's Richmond County Superior Court bond hearing, defense attorney Keith Johnson said Lawson ran to help his brother when Antoine Redfield began shooting. Lawson fired in defense of his brother, Johnson said.

Sheriff's deputies found 23-year-old Ja Brie Dominguez dead in the club parking lot. Charles Lawson III, 28, died at the hospital.

Redfield, 19, is also charged with murder.

Lawson drove his brother to the hospital and left him, Assistant District Attorney Clay Burckhalter said, and when investigators went to arrest Lawson there was a standoff.

Senior Judge J. Carlisle Overstreet set bond for Lawson. He cannot have any contact with witnesses and he will be on house arrest.
